PLAINTIFF'S VERIFIED STIPULATION TO CERTAIN FACTS

Plaintiff John Anthony Castro, pro se, stipulates to the following facts sought by Defendant Donald John Trump.

1. Plaintiff has declared his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the Presidency of the United States.
2. Plaintiff has filed his Declaration of Candidacy with the New Hampshire Secretary of State and paid the required fee.
3. Plaintiff has not been mentioned in any New Hampshire Republican primary polls publicly reported in 2023.
4. Plaintiff's status as a longshot Republican Presidential candidate has been covered by every major national media news outlet, including, but not limited to, the Associated Press, Reuters, NBC, ABC, CBS, CNN, Fox News, Politico, The Hill, The Washington Post, News, the

New York Times, the New York Post, Forbes, Bloomberg News, the Boston Globe, the New York Sun, and the Washington Times, the Daily Caller, among others.

5. In New Hampshire, particularly, Plaintiff has been featured on the local news with ABC affiliate WMUR 9 based in Manchester and the New Hampshire Bulletin based in Concord.

6. On the October Quarterly FEC Form 3P, filed 10/12/2023, covering the period January 1, 2023-September 30, 2023, Plaintiff's principal campaign committee reported total contributions of $678. These were small contributions all less than $50. If they were incorrectly reported as donations from Plaintiff, it will be corrected.

7. On the October Quarterly FEC Form 3P, filed 10/12/2023, covering the period January 1, 2023-September 30, 2023, Plaintiff's principal campaign committee reported total expenditures of $0.

8. Plaintiff does not yet have a campaign office in New Hampshire.

9. Plaintiff does not yet have employees in New Hampshire.

10. Plaintiff's campaign is not yet running any advertisements in New Hampshire. Plaintiff's campaign strategy is to postpone advertising until the right moment. Considering Plaintiff was born into a lower working-class family and now has a tax firm generating an average of $3 million annually, has two law degrees including a Master of Laws from Georgetown Law, and is an alum of Harvard Business School, Plaintiff's professional judgment is hardly questionable. Keep watching and learn.

11. Plaintiff's campaign is not yet engaging in campaign activities in New Hampshire other than this lawsuit, which reminds Plaintiff of Defendant Donald Trump trolling then-President Obama over his birth certificate in order to increase his national political profile. Plaintiff did not become a successful and wealthy entrepreneur by making bad decisions based on bad odds. Timing is everything. Keep watching and learn.

12. Presently, Plaintiff's campaign has no serious prospect of getting any New Hampshire delegates to the Republican National Convention, nor any significant number of votes that would otherwise have gone to Donald Trump, nor any appreciable share of donations that otherwise would have gone to Donald Trump; as of right now.

13. If Defendant Secretary of State was enjoined from processing Defendant Donald John Trump's ballot access documentation, printing ballots bearing the name of Defendant Donald John Trump, and disregarding write-in votes in favor of Defendant Donald John Trump, it is factually certain that Defendant Donald John Trump could not win New Hampshire.

14. Plaintiff is a candidate whose name will be on the ballot. Plaintiff is a pragmatic realist. Plaintiff understands the odds of a successful campaign are low, but Plaintiff also understands that many Presidents lost their first elections. Lyndon B. Johnson ran in the Democratic primary in 1960 and lost. Johnson went on to win the 1964 presidential election. Richard Nixon lost the general election in 1960. Nixon went on to win the 1968 presidential election. George H.W. Bush lost the 1980 primary. Bush went on to win the 1988 presidential election.

15. As Defendant Donald John Trump pointed out, Plaintiff has $677 in his campaign account. Despite having only $677, Plaintiff has managed to garner global news coverage with every major news network and has forced former President Donald J. Trump to respond to him. Now imagine what Plaintiff will accomplish with a full campaign staff and millions of dollars.

16. One of many goals of this campaign is for Plaintiff to demonstrate his legal ingenuity, ability to effectuate a national litigation strategy with minimal resources (i.e., guerilla lawfare), and demonstrate executive leadership capabilities.

17. Defendant Donald John Trump's assertion that Plaintiff is not a "bona fide" candidate is frivolous.

18. Plaintiff intends to one day serve this nation as President of the United States.
